Memo of Writ Appeal under Rule 157(10) read with Section 2(1) of the Appeal to the Division Bench of the High Court of Chhattisgarh Rules, 2005.

Present :

Shri S.K.Thomas, counsel for the appellant.

ORAL ORDER

(Passed on 25th October, 2007)

The following oral order of the Court was passed by Hon'ble Shri Jagdish Bhalla, Acting C.J.

This appeal arises out of the judgment passed by learned single Judge dated 22nd March 2007.

Learned counsel appearing for the appellant submitted that the appellant was working on daily wages and in due course of time he was regularized on the post of Chowkidar. Learned counsel could not point out any ground on the basis of which the judgment passed by the single Judge can be set aside. However, it has been particularly argued by the counsel for the appellant that since the appellant was initially working as daily wager on the post of Line Helper, he gained sufficient experience in that field, therefore his post i.e. Chowkidar be converted into Line-man and he be allowed to work as Line Helper(Attendant Grade-III). However, this ground was not raised by the appellant before the learned single Judge. The appellant has approached this Court after three years of his regularization by filing writ petition though there is a delay of 81 days for filing this appeal. However, since we do not find any merit in the matter, therefore, we have not issued any notice as it will unnecessary add to the list of pending cases.

In the light of above, no interference is warranted in this appeal. Accordingly, this appeal is dismissed.
